YOUNG THE CHAIRMAN

HE WILL DIRECT THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CAMPAIGN THIS FALL.

Chosen by Acclamation Yesterday-C. N. Elliott for Secretary, C. A. Bookwalter Treasurer.

The Republican county committee, which was elected at the precinct meetings Friday night, met in the rooms of the Republican Commercial Travelers' Club, on North Pennsylvania street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and elected the following officers:

Chairman-Archibald A. Young. Vice Chairman-Si Clark. Secretary-Charles N. Elliott.

Treasurer-Charles A. Bookwalter. The meeting was thoroughly harmonous and enthusiastic. There were only three or four of the committeemen absent and the commodious hall was well filled. The proceedings of the committee were open only to the committeemen, the ante room being crowded with members of the party interested in the work of the committee. Chairman Merrill Moores, of the old committee, called the meeting to order and after reading the roll, announced that the gathering was one solely for the purpose of electing officers and that no speeches were to be made. Nominations for chairman were called for and the names of Archibald A. Young, Eugene Saulcy and Harvey B. Stout were presented. Saulcy arose and announced that he was not a candidate, asking that his name be withdrawn. The ballot had proceeded through but a few wards when Mr. Stout withdrew his name and Mr. Young was chosen by aclamation, amid much applause. committee consisting of Messrs. Saulcy and Stout were appointed to notify the new chairman of his election. The selection of a secretary brought out two names, those of Charles N. Elliott and Wesley Garrard. The vote was very close, but Mr. Eliott was chosen by a margin of twelve. There was but one nomination for treasurer and Charles A. Bookwalter was chosen with a whoop. After Mr. Young had been escorted to the hall he made a brief, but timely, speech, in which he said that the Republicans of Marion county would make a strong and victorious contest this fall. He was quite sure the party would be as a unit. Mr. Young's remarks were heartily applauded. Mr. Bookwalter also spoke. Archibald A. Young, the new chairman, is one of the most popular Republicans in the county, having friends in all ranks. He was born in Johnson county in 1852 and came to Indianapolis in 1872, living in this city since then, most of the time in the Third ward. He has held but one public office, that of councilman from the Third He served two terms, from 1891 to 1895, and when he retired from the Council he left behind him a clean record. He has taken an active interest in politics for a number of years, serving frequently as precinct or ward committeeman. He is McMurray, is a member of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church and a Scottish Rite The following resolutions were adopted by "We, the members of the Republican central committee of Marion county, desire to express at this time our entire satisfaction and approval of the management of this committee for the past four years by our retiring chairman, Mr. Merrill Moores We believe the unprecedented record that has been made by the Republican organization in Marion county during this time has largely due to his faithful, unseinsh and tireless work in bringing about the most systematic and intelligent precinct organization we have ever had in this county. And now, upon his retirement from the chairmanship, we extend to him the thanks of every Republican in Marion county, and assure him of their appreciation of his ef-forts and of the confidence of this organ-

GREENFIELD, Ind., Jan. 18.-The Republican central committee of Hancock county met at the courthouse to-day and organized for the campaign. Newton R. Spencer, of the law firm of Spencer & Binford, was selected chairman; Ham L. Strickland, vice chairman; Howard T. Roberts, secretary, and Dr. C. K. Bruner, treasurer. There were twenty-two out of the twenty-six committeemen present and all were enthusiastic. All the officers were elected unanimously. The executive committee will be appointed by the chairman and an advisory committee by the chairman and secretary. The committee is first-class and the newly elected officers are strong. Mr. Spencer, the chairman, is a graduate of the State University, a fluent speaker and a splendid organizer. He managed the city campaign here very successfully last year, when the Republicans elected every candidate, the first time Greenfield Republicans had ever gained such a victory.

PICTURES OF PIONEERS.

Interesting and Valuable Collection in Bartholomew County. ecial to the indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., Jan. 18.—Some time ago George Pence, then auditor of this county, started to make a collection of pictures of the ex-commissioners and of the celebrated men who were connected with the early history of Bartholomew county. This gallery now consists of about twenty pictures, among them being an oil painting of Gen. Bartholomew, after whom the county is named, painted in 1820 by R. Terrell, of New Albany. The picture is a valuable find and was bequeathed to the county by James C. Bartholomew, a son of the general. Mr. J. C. Bartholomew died at his home in Lodi, Wis., not long ago, and the picture was sent here and is prized very highly. Acting upon this idea, Circuit Court Judge F. T. Hord began a collection of pictures of the judges of this circuit and of the prominent attorneys. He has been quite successful in his canvass, and has secured a promise of the pictures of nearly all of the former judges. The pictures are now beginning to come in. Those already received are pictures of Judge Beatty Mot Clelland, who presided over the Common Pleas Court of this county from 1860 to 1864; Judge Wick, the first Circuit judge of this county, afterwards elected to Congress, and appointed postmaster in Indianapolis; Judge Downing, Circuit Court judge of this county for twelve years, beginning in 1852, now Judge of the Dearborn and Ohio county Circuit Court. Among the attorneys' pictures already on hand is one of Col. S. Stainsfee, who has for years been one of the leading attorneys of northern Indiana, and is still in the harness.

CRUSHED HIS BABY'S HEAD. Brutal Crime of a Man Who Feared His Child Might Starve. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DELPHI, Ind., Jan. 18 .- One of the most flendish crimes ever committed in northwestern Indiana was perpetrated a few days ago at Brook, in Newton county. A day laborer named Tole, who was out of work and almost on the verge of starvation, took his seven-month-old child, and, placing its head between his knees literally crushed its skull. The wife of the murderer, who witnessed the act, rushed from the house screaming, and when neighbors came the child was found to be bleeding profusely from the nose and mouth, but till breathi. g. It died in a few hours. Tole was arrested and is now in jail, awaiting trial. Tole is a man of low mental capacity. He became desperate by the condition of his family and says he committed the horrible deed in order to place the child beyond the chances of starvation. It is said that the mother of the child went to a neighbor's house the day before it was killed and asked for permission to put the little one to bed in order that it might get warm, stating that they had neither food nor fuel in the house.

Her Testimony Unshaken.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., Jan. 18.—The third day of the Needham will case, involving about $100,000, enabled the defense to spring a sensation. It was an attempt to impeach tract of 1895-96 which has been prevailing | the testimony of Mrs. Edmonds, of Needham Station. Mrs. Edmonds formerly lived with Mrs. Sarah Needham, whose will is in question, and the plaintiffs are seeking to prove by her that Mrs. Needham was unduly influenced at the time she prepared to testify for the plaintiffs if they paid her enough. He further asked her if she did not offer one of the plaintiffs to sell her testimony to him. She gave a quick and indignant negative to all the insinua-tions and went through the cross-examination with credit. She was placed on the stand early in the morning, and when court adjourned this evening she was notified that she would be wanted again Monday. Her testimony remained unshaken, and the local attorneys say she is one of the best witnesses they have ever heard. This term of court holds only until Friday, and it is thought that an adjourned session will be necessary.
